

AGENDA
Greening Virginia Universities and Colleges

Presented by
James Madison University
Center for Energy and Environmental Sustainability
JMU Student Chapter of the Association of Energy Engineers
Virginia Sustainable Building Network

11:00 AM – 8:00 PM
September 26, 2006
Harrisonburg, VA

NOTE NEW LOCATION**

Due to the large number of registrations for this event, the Greening Virginia Universities and Colleges Conference has been moved from James Madison University to a nearby meeting venue – Simple Pleasures – located at 380 University Boulevard, Harrisonburg. This venue is near the JMU Convocation Center. Telephone: 540-564-2988.

- From Interstate 81, take Exit 247A (U.S. 33 East) toward Elkton.
- Merge onto U.S. 33 E./E. Market Street. Travel 0.8 miles.
- Turn right onto VA-331/University Blvd.
- Travel 0.7 miles to Simple Pleasures at 380 University Blvd. Tel: 540-564-2988

10:45AM – Noon Tour of James Madison University Green Roof

If you are an attendee and would like to go on the tour, please email Pamela Vosburgh at Pam@vsbn.org so that we can inform Professor Wayne Teel to expect you. The Tour begins at 10:45 AM. If you are planning on attending the tour, you should park at the JMU Convocation Center parking lot. Give yourself 20 minutes to park and walk from the Convocation Center parking lot to the Tunnel under Rt. 81. Follow the signs to Warren Hall. Professor Wayne Teel will greet you on the second floor patio for the tour. A map of James Madison University is available at <http://www.jmu.edu/map/>.

11:00 AM – NOON Registration

Noon-1:00 PM Welcome – Daniel Wubah, Ph.D., Special Assistant to the President, James Madison University
Lunch and Guest Speaker: Tavey McDaniel, Sustainability Outreach and Communication Coordinator, Office of the Executive Vice President, Duke University

1:00PM-2:00PM Green Building Design
Bryna Dunn, AICP, LEED® AP, Director of Environmental Programs, Moseley Architects – Old Dominion University, Engineering and Computational Science Building
Randy Strickland, Project Manager, William and Mary and Mike Padden, AIA, Principal, Clark Nexsen

- 2:00PM-3:00PM Green Operations and Energy Management
Shelley Clinger, Project Engineer, Virginia Community College System, Facility Management Services – performance Contracting at Virginia’s Community Colleges
Robert Somers, P.E., President, 2rw Consultants – Virginia Commonwealth University’s Energy Management Program
- 3:00-3:15 Break
- 3:15PM-4:15PM Green Curriculum
Jonathan Miles, Ph.D., Professor, Integrated Science and Technology Program, James Madison University – Sustainable Education at Home and Abroad
Annie Pearce Ph.D. Assistant Professor, Department of Building Construction, College of Architecture and Urban Studies and Sean McGinnis, Director, Green Engineering Program – Greening Virginia Tech Curriculum
- 4:15PM-5:15PM Sustainable Planning
Renee Godard, Ph.D., Chairman, Department of Biology, Hollins University
Julia Monteith, AICP, Senior Land Use Planner and Connie Warnock, Assistant University Architect, Office of the Architect, University of Virginia
- 5:30 PM-7:00 PM Dinner and Guest Speaker: David W. Orr, Ph.D., Paul Sears Distinguished Professor of Environmental Studies and Politics and Chair, Environmental Studies Program, Oberlin College
- 7:00PM-8:00PM Facilitated Roundtable Discussion, with JMU Faculty, Administrators, and Students
 The recently-formed Center for Energy and Environmental Sustainability (CEES) at James Madison University promotes sustainable lifestyle, community, and business practices through research, education, and outreach. The Center conducts integrated studies of energy, natural resource stewardship, human needs, and economic development. The Roundtable Discussion, led by the founding CEES faculty members, will be an open, informal conversation that reflects on the various presentations offered throughout the day and the lessons shared by Dr. Orr. The audience participants will be invited to share their thoughts and ideas to help guide CEES faculty in shaping the mission and agenda of the new Center.